

Name: _____ Date: _____

Traders, Kings and Pilgrims

Q1. State True (T) or false (F).

- i. Amongst the river valleys, that of the Kaveri is the most fertile. _____
- ii. Only rich, belonging to the so-called 'high' castes, man could follow the path of Bhakti. _____
- iii. Nalanda, (Bihar) was the most famous Buddhist monastery of the period. _____
- iv. Muvendar is a Sanskrit word meaning three chiefs. _____
- v. Sometimes, Chinese rulers sent gifts of silk to rulers in Iran and west Asia. _____
- vi. Satavahanas became powerful in eastern India. _____
- vii. At Taxila a new form of Buddhist art influenced by the Greek style was developed. _____

Q2. Fill in the blanks.

- i. Puhar was an important port on the _____.
- ii. Around 200 years later a dynasty known as the Satavahanas became powerful in _____.
- iii. South India was famous for _____, _____ and _____.
- iv. Fa Xian began his journey back home from _____.
- v. Statues of the Buddha were made in _____ and _____.
- vi. About 2000 years ago, wearing _____ became the fashion amongst rulers and rich people in Rome.

Q3. Name the ruler who controlled silk route effectively.

Ans. _____

Q4. Where is the site of Eran located?

Ans. _____

Traders, Kings and Pilgrims

Q1. State True (T) or false (F).

- i. Amongst the river valleys, that of the Kaveri is the most fertile. True
- ii. Only rich, belonging to the so-called 'high' castes, man could follow the path of Bhakti. False
- iii. Nalanda, (Bihar) was the most famous Buddhist monastery of the period. True
- iv. Muvendar is a Sanskrit word meaning three chiefs. False
- v. Sometimes, Chinese rulers sent gifts of silk to rulers in Iran and west Asia. True
- vi. Satavahanas became powerful in eastern India. False
- vii. At Taxila a new form of Buddhist art influenced by the Greek style was developed. True

Q2. Fill in the blanks.

- i. Puhar was an important port on the east coast.
- ii. Around 200 years later a dynasty known as the Satavahanas became powerful in western India.
- iii. South India was famous for gold, spices and precious stones.
- iv. Fa Xian began his journey back home from Bengal.
- v. Statues of the Buddha were made in Mathura and Taxila.
- vi. About 2000 years ago, wearing silk became the fashion amongst rulers and rich people in Rome.

Q3. Name the ruler who controlled silk route effectively.

Ans. Kushanas

Q4. Where is the site of Eran located?

Ans. Madhya Pradesh