

Name: _____ Date: _____

India - Climate, Vegetation and Wildlife

Q1. How do plants help prevent soil erosion?

Ans. _____

Q2. Which two place of Rajasthan are very hot?

Ans. _____

Q3. Name two regions of Jammu and Kashmir which are freezing cold?

Ans. _____

Q4. When do we like to have something hot to eat?

Ans. _____

Q5. Why do we celebrate Van Mahotsav?

Ans. _____

Q6. Why have the Sunderbans been named so?

Ans. _____

Q7. What is weather?

Ans. _____

India - Climate, Vegetation and Wildlife

Q1. How do plants help prevent soil erosion?

Ans. The roots of the plants bind the soil; thus, they control soil erosion.

Q2. Which two place of Rajasthan are very hot?

Ans. Jaisalmer and Bikaner in the desert of Rajasthan are very hot.

Q3. Name two regions of Jammu and Kashmir which are freezing cold?

Ans. Drass and Kargil in Jammu and Kashmir are freezing cold.

Q4. When do we like to have something hot to eat?

Ans. When it is very windy and chilly, we would like to have something hot to eat.

Q5. Why do we celebrate Van Mahotsav?

Ans. We have special programmes like Van Mahotsav to involve more people in making our earth green.

Q6. Why have the Sunderbans been named so?

Ans. Sundari is a well-known species of trees in mangrove forests after which Sunderbans have been named.

Q7. What is weather?

Ans. Weather refers to day to day changes in the atmosphere such as changes in temperature, rainfall and sunshine etc.