

Name: _____ Date: _____

Getting to Know Plants

Q1. From where do potatoes get the starch?

Ans. _____

Q2. How are leaves attached to the stem?

Ans. _____

Q3. Write 5 examples of edible roots.

Ans. _____

Q4. The following picture shows two types of root. Write the type of roots for the following figures.

Ans.

Q5. How do plants exchange gases with the environment?

Ans. _____

Getting to Know Plants

Q1. From where do potatoes get the starch?

Ans. Potatoes get the starch from other parts of the plant and store it.

Q2. How are leaves attached to the stem?

Ans. The leaves are attached to the stem by petiole.

Q3. Write 5 examples of edible roots.

Ans. carrot, radish, sweet potato, turnip and tapioca

Q4. The following picture shows two types of root. Write the type of roots for the following figures.

Ans.

Tap Root

Fibrous Root

Q5. How do plants exchange gases with the environment?

Ans. Exchange of gases takes place in the plants mainly through the tiny pores on the surface of their leaves called stomata.