

Name: _____ Date: _____

Tribes, Nomads and Settled Communities

Q1. Who were the most important trader nomads?

Ans. _____

Q2. When did the Mughals forces attack Garha Katanga?

Ans. _____

Q3. Why did Mughals attack Ahom kingdom?

Ans. _____

Q4. Who was made a noble (mansabdar) by Emperor Akbar?

Ans. _____

Q5. What made the brahmanas more influential in the Gond society?

Ans. _____

Q6. Name the tribes which lived in extreme south.

Ans. _____

Q7. Who subjugated the Cheros?

Ans. _____

Tribes, Nomads and Settled Communities

Q1. Who were the most important trader nomads?

Ans. The Banjaras were the most important trader nomads.

Q2. When did the Mughals forces attack Garha Katanga?

Ans. In 1565, the Mughal forces under Asaf Khan attacked Garha Katanga.

Q3. Why did Mughals attack Ahom kingdom?

Ans. In 1662, the Mughals under Mir Jumla attacked the Ahom kingdom.

Q4. Who was made a noble (mansabdar) by Emperor Akbar?

Ans. Kamal Khan Gakkhar was made a noble (mansabdar) by Emperor Akbar.

Q5. What made the brahmanas more influential in the Gond society?

Ans. Brahmanas received land grants from the Gond rajas and became more influential.

Q6. Name the tribes which lived in extreme south.

Ans. Further south there were large tribal populations of Koragas, Vetars, Maravars and many others.

Q7. Who subjugated the Cheros?

Ans. Under Aurangzeb, Mughal forces captured many Chero fortresses and subjugated the tribe.