

Name: _____ Date: _____

Struggles for Equality

Q1. Why teachers forced Omprakash Valmiki to sweep the school yard?

Ans. _____

Q2. Why people are treated unequally in India?

Ans. _____

Q3. How Indian Constitution justify rights to equality?

Ans. _____

Q4. What role does the Constitution play in people's struggles for equality?

Ans. _____

Q5. Why the old Tehri town and many villages, some totally and some partially, were submerged?

Ans. _____

Q6. How writers, singers, dancers and artists have also been very active in the fight against inequality?

Ans. _____

Struggles for Equality

Q1. Why teachers forced Omprakash Valmiki to sweep the school yard?

Ans. The main reason that the teachers forced Omprakash Valmiki to sweep the school yard was because he was Dalit.

Q2. Why people are treated unequally in India?

Ans. People are treated unequally mainly on the basis of person's religion, caste and sex.

Q3. How Indian Constitution justify rights to equality?

Ans. The Indian Constitution recognises all Indians as equal before the law and states that no person can be discriminated against because of their religion, sex, caste or whether they are rich or poor.

Q4. What role does the Constitution play in people's struggles for equality?

Ans. The Indian Constitution recognises the equality of all persons. Movements and struggles for equality in India continuously refer to the Indian Constitution to make their point about equality and justice for all.

Q5. Why the old Tehri town and many villages, some totally and some partially, were submerged?

Ans. The old Tehri town and many villages, some totally and some partially, were submerged because of construction of Tawa dam across the river.

Q6. How writers, singers, dancers and artists have also been very active in the fight against inequality?

Ans. Their poems, songs and stories can also inspire us and make us believe strongly in an issue and influence our efforts to correct the situation.