The Indian Constitution

Q1. What did Dr Ambedkar state about scheduled caste?

Ans. He stated that although the laws might exist, Scheduled Castes still had reason to fear because the administration of these laws was in the hands of 'caste Hindu officers'. He, therefore, urged Scheduled Castes to join the government as well as the civil services.

Q2. What do you mean by Directive Principles of State Policy?

Ans. Directive Principles of State Policy was designed by the members of the Constituent Assembly to ensure greater social and economic reforms and to serve as a guide to the independent Indian State to institute laws and policies that help reduce the poverty of the masses.

Q3. Define the term constitution.

Ans. In large societies in which different communities of people live together, the rules are formulated through consensus, and in modern countries this consensus is usually available in written form. A written document in which we find such rules is called a Constitution.

Q4. What is the fundamental Right to Freedom?

Ans. Right to Freedom

This includes the right to freedom of speech and expression, the right to form associations, the right to move freely and reside in any part of the country, and the right to practise any profession, occupation or business.
