The Indian Constitution

Q1. What would happen if there were no restrictions on the power of elected representatives?

Ans. If there were no restrictions on the power of elected representatives the leaders might misuse the powers given to them. Misuse of authority can result in gross injustice. Thus, in democratic societies, the Constitution often lays down rules that guard against this misuse of authority by our political leaders.

Q2. What is Constitutional Monarchy?

Ans. A system of government in which a country is ruled by a king and queen whose power is limited by a constitution.

Example: Until quite recently, Nepal was a monarchy. The previous Constitution of Nepal, which had been adopted in 1990, reflected the fact that the final authority rested with the King.

Q3. Mention the key features of the Indian Constitution.

Ans. The key features of the Indian constitution are:-

- i. Federalism
- ii. Parliamentary Form of Government
- iii. Separation of Powers
- iv. Fundamental Rights
- v. Secularism
