

Name: _____ Date: _____

Coal and Petroleum

Q1. Which fuel is used in heavy motor vehicles?

Ans. _____

Q2. Where and when was the world's first oil well drilled?

Ans. _____

Q3. What are the uses of kerosene?

Ans. _____

Q4. Why is lubricating oil used?

Ans. _____

Q5. Write the uses of paraffin wax.

Ans. _____

Q6. From where do we obtain petrol and diesel?

Ans. _____

Q7. How can bitumen be used?

Ans. _____

Q8. Give two uses of diesel.

Ans. _____

Q9. Why is petroleum also known as 'black gold'?

Ans. _____

Coal and Petroleum

Q1. Which fuel is used in heavy motor vehicles?

Ans. Diesel is used in heavy motor vehicles.

Q2. Where and when was the world's first oil well drilled?

Ans. The world's first oil well was drilled in Pennsylvania, USA, in 1859.

Q3. What are the uses of kerosene?

Ans. Kerosene is used as fuel in stoves, lamps and in jet aircrafts.

Q4. Why is lubricating oil used?

Ans. Lubricating oil is used for lubrication.

Q5. Write the uses of paraffin wax.

Ans. Paraffin wax is used in ointments, candles, vaseline etc.

Q6. From where do we obtain petrol and diesel?

Ans. Petrol and diesel are obtained from a natural resource called petroleum.

Q7. How can bitumen be used?

Ans. Bitumen can be used for making paints and for surfacing the roads.

Q8. Give two uses of diesel.

Ans. Diesel is used as fuel for heavy motor vehicles and in electric generators.

Q9. Why is petroleum also known as 'black gold'?

Ans. Due to its great commercial importance, petroleum is also called 'black gold'.