

Name: _____ Date: _____

Colonialism and the City

Q1. State True (T) or False (F).

- i. In the Western world, modern cities grew with industrialisation. _____
- ii. Surat and Machlipatnam developed in the nineteenth century. _____
- iii. The Delhi Municipal Committee was unwilling to spend money on a good drainage system. _____
- iv. In the twentieth century, the majority of Indians lived in cities. _____
- v. After 1857 no worship was allowed in the Jama Masjid for five years. _____
- vi. More money was spent on cleaning Old Delhi than New Delhi. _____
- vii. Delhi College was established in 1792. _____
- viii. New Delhi took nearly 20 years to build. _____

Q2. What is a Dargah?

Ans. _____

Q3. What do you mean by Cul-de-sac?

Ans. _____

Q4. What is Gularoshan?

Ans. _____

Q5. What was the capital of British India before Delhi?

Ans. _____

Q6. Which mosque was converted into a bakery by the British?

Ans. _____

Q7. Where did British live in the 1870s?

Ans. _____

Colonialism and the City

Q1. State True (T) or False (F).

- i. In the Western world, modern cities grew with industrialisation. True
- ii. Surat and Machlipatnam developed in the nineteenth century. False
- iii. The Delhi Municipal Committee was unwilling to spend money on a good drainage system. True
- iv. In the twentieth century, the majority of Indians lived in cities. False
- v. After 1857 no worship was allowed in the Jama Masjid for five years. True
- vi. More money was spent on cleaning Old Delhi than New Delhi. False
- vii. Delhi College was established in 1792. True
- viii. New Delhi took nearly 20 years to build. True

Q2. What is a Dargah?

Ans. The tomb of a Sufi saint is called Dargah.

Q3. What do you mean by Cul-de-sac?

Ans. Cul-de-sac is a street with a dead end.

Q4. What is Gulfaroshan?

Ans. Gulfaroshan is a festival of flowers.

Q5. What was the capital of British India before Delhi?

Ans. Calcutta was the capital of British India before Delhi.

Q6. Which mosque was converted into a bakery by the British?

Ans. The Zinatal- Masjid was converted into a bakery by the British.

Q7. Where did British live in the 1870s?

Ans. They lived in the sprawling Civil Lines area that came up in the north.