The Making of the National Movement 1870s-1947

Q1. List the important political development in mid-1920 in India.

Ans. Two important developments of the mid-1920s were the formation of the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS), a Hindu organisation, and the Communist Party of India. These parties have held very different ideas about the kind of country India should be. The revolutionary nationalist Bhagat Singh too was active in this period. The decade closed with the Congress resolving to fight for Purna Swaraj (complete independence) in 1929 under the presidentship of Jawaharlal Nehru. Consequently, "Independence Day" was observed on 26 January 1930 all over the country.

Q2. How did people participate in non-cooperation movement during 1921-22?

Ans. The Non-Cooperation Movement gained momentum through 1921-22.

- i. Thousands of students left government controlled schools and colleges.
- ii. Many lawyers such as Motilal Nehru, C.R. Das, C. Rajagopalachari and Asaf Ali gave up their practices.
- iii. British titles were surrendered and legislatures boycotted.
- iv. People lit public bonfires of foreign cloth. The imports of foreign cloth fell drastically between 1920 and 1922.
