

Name: _____ Date: _____

Internal Organs

Q1. State True (T) or false (F).

- The food we swallow moves down into esophagus. _____
- Lower part of the stomach leads into the small intestine. _____
- Gastric juices are secreted by heart that helps in the digestion of food.

- Lungs are located in slanting position in the center of chest. _____
- Breathing of air is called exhalation. _____
- Kidneys filter water and salts from our blood. _____

Q2. Fill in the blanks.

- _____ controls the entire function of our body.
- Our heart beats about _____ times in a minute.
- Arteries appear _____ in color.
- The waste get collected in the _____ and thrown out of body as urine.
- Our brain is very delicate and is protected by _____ from outside.
- _____ helps in breathing.

Q3. Match the following.

Lungs is a muscular, elastic, pear shaped bag under the ribs

Heart appear blue in color and carries waste material and carbon dioxide.

Stomach receives signals from our sense organs and sends information to other part of the body

Veins circulates blood throughout our body through blood vessels

Brain are pair of spongy, cone shaped structures located in chest and are protected by rib cage.