

Name: _____ Date: _____

Rural Administration

Q1. What do you understand by a 'Bund'?

Ans. _____

Q2. Where can one register a complaint in case of dispute?

Ans. _____

Q3. Who is responsible for measuring land and keeping land records?

Ans. _____

Q4. What are the basic needs of the village people?

Ans. _____

Q5. What are the different names used for the sub-division of a district?

Ans. _____

Q6. Why Mohan's complaint was not being recorded by the Station House Officer?

Ans. _____

Rural Administration

Q1. What do you understand by a 'Bund'?

Ans. A bund is a small boundary which separates the land.

Q2. Where can one register a complaint in case of dispute?

Ans. One can register a complaint in case of dispute in the Police Station of that area.

Q3. Who is responsible for measuring land and keeping land records?

Ans. Measuring land and keeping land records is the main work of the Patwari.

Q4. What are the basic needs of the village people?

Ans. The village people need water facilities, electricity, road connections, hospitals and schools etc.

Q5. What are the different names used for the sub-division of a district?

Ans. The subdivisions of a district are known by different names such as tehsil, taluka, etc.

Q6. Why Mohan's complaint was not being recorded by the Station House Officer?

Ans. It was because Raghu's family was very influential and would have already contacted the police station.