

Name: _____ Date: _____

Urban Administration

Q1. Why children went to Yasmin Khala's house?

Ans. _____

Q2. Who was Yasmin Khala?

Ans. _____

Q3. What did Gangabai say when the Commissioner said that there were not enough trucks in the city?

Ans. _____

Q4. Why do you think Gangabai decided to approach the Ward Councillor?

Ans. _____

Q5. What could be the effects of garbage lying all over the streets?

Ans. _____

Q6. What steps have been taken by Municipal Corporation of Surat for the control of plague?

Ans. _____

Urban Administration

Q1. Why children went to Yasmin Khala's house?

Ans. Children went to Yasmin Khala's house because they broke the street light and wanted to know whom did the lights on the streets belong to.

Q2. Who was Yasmin Khala?

Ans. Yasmin Khala was friend of Rehana's mother who had just retired from the Municipal Corporation.

Q3. What did Gangabai say when the Commissioner said that there were not enough trucks in the city?

Ans. Gangabai smartly replied, "But you seem to have enough trucks to collect garbage from the rich localities".

Q4. Why do you think Gangabai decided to approach the Ward Councillor?

Ans. Gangabai decided to approach the Ward Councillor because they are the ones who elected him.

Q5. What could be the effects of garbage lying all over the streets?

Ans. Garbage lying all over the streets attracts dogs, rats and flies. Also, people may get ill from the smell.

Q6. What steps have been taken by Municipal Corporation of Surat for the control of plague?

Ans. Municipal Corporation completely cleaned up the city. The grand makeover of the city made it one of the cleanest cities in India.