

Name: _____ Date: _____

Rural Livelihoods

Q1. Sekar's sister Mina had also taken a loan from the trader. She does not want to sell her paddy to him but she will pay back her loan. Write an imaginary conversation between Mina and the trader's agent and the arguments given by each person.

Ans.

www.educationwithfun.com

Rural Livelihoods

Q1. Sekar's sister Mina had also taken a loan from the trader. She does not want to sell her paddy to him but she will pay back her loan. Write an imaginary conversation between Mina and the trader's agent and the arguments given by each person.

Ans. An imaginary conversation between Mina and the trader's agent are as follows:

Trader agent - Mina, I am here to collect the produce in lieu of loan settlement.

Mina - Ok, But this time I will pay you in cash after selling my crop produce to the market.

Trader agent - But why? Your paddy is ready and you have been paying it in lieu of loan.

Mina - But this time I will sell in the market and then do the repayment.

Trader agent - Why are you doing this? Our trader will also pay you.

Mina - He pays less than the market value.

Trader agent - Think twice. This may spoil your relation with trader.

Mina - I am firm at my decision.

Trader agent - This may result in bitter relation with us and you may not get loan in future from us.

Mina - No, problem. Then I will look for bank for my help.