

Name: _____ Date: _____

Urban Livelihoods

Q1. Fill in the blanks.

- i. Nirmala works in a _____.
- ii. There are almost _____ 'street vendors' in the country working in urban areas.
- iii. _____ is now recognised as a general benefit and as a right of people to earn their livelihood.
- iv. A large number of people in the city work on the _____.
- v. _____ and _____ are businesspersons.

Q2. True / False

- i. Vandana is a dress designer. _____
- ii. Workers who work in offices, factories, and government departments are called casual workers. _____
- iii. Working in Call Centres is a new form of employment in the big cities. _____
- iv. Street shops are usually permanent structures. _____

Q3. Name a new form of employment in the big cities.

Ans. _____

Q4. Who is Bachchu Manjhi?

Ans. _____

Q5. What is mandatory for permanent shops?

Ans. _____

Q6. What kind of threat temporary workers go through?

Ans. _____

Urban Livelihoods

Q1. Fill in the blanks.

- i. Nirmala works in a garment factory.
- ii. There are almost one crore 'street vendors' in the country working in urban areas.
- iii. Street vending is now recognised as a general benefit and as a right of people to earn their livelihood.
- iv. A large number of people in the city work on the streets.
- v. Harpreet and Vandana are businesspersons.

Q2. True / False

- i. Vandana is a dress designer. True
- ii. Workers who work in offices, factories, and government departments are called casual workers. False
- iii. Working in Call Centres is a new form of employment in the big cities. True
- iv. Street shops are usually permanent structures. False

Q3. Name a new form of employment in the big cities.

Ans. Call centres

Q4. Who is Bachchu Manjhi?

Ans. Bachchu Manjhi is a Cycle-Rickshaw Puller.

Q5. What is mandatory for permanent shops?

Ans. Permanent shops need licence to do business.

Q6. What kind of threat temporary workers go through?

Ans. Temporary workers go through threat of being fired by the employer.