

Name: _____ Date: _____

From Gathering to Growing Food

Q1. What 'Fossil Wood' refers to?

Ans. _____

Q2. Which two Neolithic tools are used to grind grain even today?

Ans. _____

Q3. Which was the first animal to be tamed?

Ans. _____

Q4. Which were the earliest plants to be domesticated?

Ans. _____

Q5. Which were the earliest animals to be domesticated?

Ans. _____

Q6. What do you understand by the term 'Tribes'.

Ans. _____

Q7. Which historical events took place about 12,000 years ago?

Ans. _____

Q8. Which historical events took place about 8,000 years ago?

Ans. _____

From Gathering to Growing Food

Q1. What 'Fossil Wood' refers to?

Ans. Fossil wood refers to ancient wood that has hardened into stone.

Q2. Which two Neolithic tools are used to grind grain even today?

Ans. Mortars and pestles are used for grinding grain.

Q3. Which was the first animal to be tamed?

Ans. The first animal to be tamed was the wild ancestor of the dog.

Q4. Which were the earliest plants to be domesticated?

Ans. Some of the earliest plants to be domesticated were wheat and barley.

Q5. Which were the earliest animals to be domesticated?

Ans. The earliest domesticated animals include sheep and goat.

Q6. What do you understand by the term 'Tribes'.

Ans. Many of these farmers and herders live in groups called tribes.

Q7. Which historical events took place about 12,000 years ago?

Ans. Beginnings of domestication took place about 12,000 years ago.

Q8. Which historical events took place about 8,000 years ago?

Ans. Beginning of settlement at Mehrgarh took place about 8000 years ago.